

Ava Pennington

Ava Pennington is an author, speaker, Bible teacher, and teaching leader for Bible Study Fellowship International. She has a master's from St. John's University and a certification in Adult Bible Studies from Moody Bible Institute. A member of the Christian Authors Network and the Advanced Writers and Speakers Association, she has also authored Reflections on the Names of God and the complementary Daily Reflections on the Names of God. She loves connecting with audiences through relevant, challenging, and enjoyable presentations.

AvaPennington.com

Suggested Interview Questions for Ava Pennington

- What inspired you to write Flourish, and how did your personal faith journey shape the book's focus on grace-centered practices?
- In the book, you emphasize protecting and growing the fruit of the Spirit. Can you share a key practice from Flourish that helps readers defend against spiritual attacks?
- How do you define a "fruitful life in Christ," and what role does grace play in cultivating that fruitfulness?
- The book is described as a resource for small groups with discussion questions. How did you design these questions to foster deeper spiritual growth and community?
- You talk about recognizing and recovering from what "the thief has stolen." Can you elaborate on how readers can identify these losses and apply biblical principles to reclaim them?
- What challenges did you face while writing about the fruit of the Spirit, and how did you ensure your approach remained practical and accessible for readers?
- How do you hope Flourish will impact readers' daily lives and their relationship with God as they navigate spiritual battles?

To schedule an interview, contact
Karen Campbell at karen@karencampbellmedia.com

